Investigative Narrative

On June 28, 2003 at approximately 0010 hours writer was on patrol in the Bottle & Cork parking lot. While standing in the east end of the parking lot, writer observed two males (defendant Parise and defendant Lucci) urinating behind a sign in the parking lot. Writer also observed defendant Lucci's penis. When the defendants finished urinating, they began to walk westbound on Dagsworthy Avenue. Writer radioed to Patrolman Pettyjohn of the Dewey Beach Police Department and gave him their descriptions and advised him the defendants were walking in his direction.

Upon stopping the defendants, Pettyjohn explained to them the reason for the stop. At this time Patrolman Hitchens and I arrived with Patrolman Pettyjohn. The defendants stated multiple times that they were real police officers and the officers on the scene were only peace officers. They also stated they will not comply with commands until the real police arrive.

Becoming very irate, the defendants said they were "done" and began walking away. Writer told the defendants to "come here" and reached for defendant Lucci. Upon grabbing Lucci around his waste, he threw his elbow against my arm and aggressively pushed himself away. At this time, I sprayed Lucci with Cap-Stun. Defendant Lucci ran less than ten feet and swung his fist towards Patrolman Pettyjohn. Patrolman Pettyjohn ducked his head and Patrolman Hitchens was punched in the mouth, putting him unconscious. Patrolman Pettyjohn told Lucci to stop and Lucci immediately put his hands up and took a few steps towards him. Patrolman Pettyjohn sprayed Lucci again with Cap-Stun. Defendant Lucci then fled eastbound on Dagsworthy Avenue. Writer observed defendant Parise running towards him with his arms spread intending to tackle him. Defendant Parise was sprayed with Cap-Stun before reaching the officers. He then fled eastbound on Dagsworthy Avenue. Both defendants were apprehended after a brief foot pursuit.

During the incident two $60.00 police uniform shirts, one $80.00 pair of police uniform pants, and a $400.00 high band radio were damaged. The radio is damaged beyond repair.

Patrolman Hitchens was transported to Beebe Medical Center where he was treated for a bruised jaw and abrasions to his lips.

The defendants were taken to the Dewey Beach Police Department where they were processed, then transported to Court 3 where they were arraigned.

Your affiant PTLM JOHN W WHEATLEY can truly state that: Your affiant can truly state that he is a duly sworn police officer employed by the Town of Dewey Beach since May of 2003.

1) on June 28, 2003 at approximately 0010 hours your affiant was on patrol in the Bottle and Cork Bar Parking Lot. Standing in the East end of the parking lot your affiant observed two males, Defendant Parise and Defendant Lucci, urinating behind a sign in the parking lot observing Lucci's penis. When the defendants finished urinating the began to walk west bound on Dagsworthy St. Your affiant radioed to Patrolman Pettyjohn of the Dewey Beach Police Department, gave him their descriptions and advised him the defendants were walking in his direction.

2) Upon stopping the defendants Pettyjohn explained to them the reason for the stop. At this time Your affiant and Patrolman Hitchens of the Dewey Beach Police Department arrived with Pettyjohn. They stated multiple times that they were real police officers and the officers on scene were only peace officers. They also stated they will not comply with commands until the real police arrive.

3) Becoming very irate the defendants said they were "done" and began walking away. Your affiant told the Defendants to "Come Here" and reached for Defendant Lucci. Upon grabbing Lucci around his waste he threw his elbow against your affiant's arm and aggressively pushed himself away. Spraying Lucci with Cap Stun he ran less than ten feet and swung his fist toward Pettyjohn. Ptlm Pettyjohn ducked his head and Ptlm Hitchens was punched in the mouth putting her unconscious. Pettyjohn told Lucci to stop and Lucci immediately put his hands up and took a few steps towards him. Ptlm Pettyjohn sprayed Lucci again with Cap Stun. Lucci then ran east bound on Dagsworthy Street. Your affiant observed defendant Parise running towards him. Arms spread intending to tackle him. He was sprayed with mace before reaching the officers and fled east bound on Dagsworthy Street. Both defendants were apprehended after a brief foot pursuit.

4) During the incident two $60.00 Police uniform shirts, one $80.00 pair of Police uniform pants and $400.00 High Band radio were damaged. The radio is damaged beyond repair.

5) Ptlm Hitchens was transported to Beebe medical center where he was treated for a bruised jaw and abrasions to his lips.

6) The defendants were taken to the Dewey Beach Police Department where they were processed.

Location of Offense: Dewey Beach, 19971

Your affiant PTLM JOHN W WHEATLEY can truly state that: Your affiant can truly state that he is a duly sworn police officer employed by the Town of Dewey Beach since May of 2003.

1) on June 28, 2003 at approximately 0010 hours your affiant was on patrol in the Bottle and Cork Bar Parking Lot. Standing in the East end of the parking lot your affiant observed two males, Defendant Parise and Defendant Lucci, urinating behind a sign in the parking lot observing Lucci's penis. When the defendants finished urinating the began to walk west bound on Dagsworthy St. Your affiant radioed to Patrolman Pettyjohn of the Dewey Beach Police Department, gave him their descriptions and advised him the defendants were walking in his direction.

2) Upon stopping the defendants Pettyjohn explained to them the reason for the stop. At this time Your affiant and Patrolman Hitchens of the Dewey Beach Police Department arrived with Pettyjohn. They stated multiple times that they were real police officers and the officers on scene were only peace officers. They also stated they will not comply with commands until the real police arrive.

3) Becoming very irate the defendants said they were "done" and began walking away. Your affiant told the Defendants to "Come Here" and reached for Defendant Lucci. Upon grabbing Lucci around his waste he threw his elbow against your affiant's arm and aggressively pushed himself away. Spraying Lucci with Cap Stun he ran less then ten feet and swung his fist toward Ptlm Pettyjohn. Ptlm Pettyjohn ducked his head and Ptlm Hitchens was punched in the mouth putting him unconscious. Pettyjohn told Lucci to stop and Lucci immediately put his hands up and took a few steps towards him. Ptlm Pettyjohn sprayed Lucci again with Cap Stun. He then fled east bound on Dagsworthy Street. Your affiant observed defendant Parise running towards him with arms spread intending to tackle him. He was sprayed with mace before reaching the officers and fled east bound on Dagsworthy Street. Both defendants were apprehended after a brief foot pursuit.

4) During the incident two $60.00 Police uniform shirts, one $80.00 pair of Police uniform pants and $400.00 High Band radio were damaged. The radio is damaged beyond repair.

5) Ptlm Hitchens was transported to Beebe medical center where he was treated for a bruised jaw and abrasions to his lips.

6) The defendants were taken to the Dewey Beach Police Department where they were processed. Affiant: PTLM JOHN W WHEATLEY (98938) of DEWEY BEACH PD

Investigative Narrative

On June 28, 2003 at 0010 hours I was notified by the Dewey Beach Police dispatch center that officers were attempting to place two suspects into custody. When I arrived at Dagsworthy Avenue (bayside), I observed three officers trying to detain two subjects who were identified as defendants Gregory Parise and Paul Lucci. The officers involved were Dewey Beach Police officers Hitchens, Wheatley, and Pettyjohn. While wrestling with the defendants, they repeatedly asked the defendants to stop resisting, but the defendants continued fighting. Both were sprayed with Oleoresin Capsicum (OC) spray and were swinging their arms not letting the arresting officers place handcuffs on them. Both defendants were yelling that they were New York police officers and they were being arrested for no reason. They also stated they wanted a real police officer on the scene. The defendants were placed into custody. When I observed Ptlm. Hitchens, I noticed blood dripping from his lip. I asked him how that occurred and he informed me while wrestling with the defendants, he was punched in the jaw by defendant Lucci. I was informed by Wheatley the punch was intended for Ptlm. Pettyjohn, but struck him. He also stated the blow rendered Ptlm Hitchens unconscious. Ptlm Hitchens was transported to Beebe Medical Center by the Rehoboth Beach Fire Department. At Beebe Medical Center he was treated and released for the injuries caused by Defendant Lucci.

When the defendants were placed into custody they were transported to the Dewey Beach Police Department. At that location, their eyes were treated with water to reverse the effects of the OC Spray. They were also issued a O.C. Administrative Warning. During the decontamination, defendant Parise stated he was employed by the Oneida County Sheriff's Department. When I left the decontamination area, I was told by Ptlm Wheatley the two men changed their stories and began saying they were not police officers. The defendants continued resisting officers commands until they were placed in the Dewey Beach Police holding cell. Upon bringing the defendants into the holding cell, they were asked again where they were employed. Parise stated Oneida County New York but he was not a police officer. Lucci continued stating he was not a police officer.

Oneida County Sheriff's Department was contacted and it was discovered that Parise was in fact employed by the Sheriff's Department. He is a recent graduate of their police academy. Through further investigation, I discovered Lucci also was a police officer employed by the city of Rochester, New York and has been so for several years.

The defendants were processed and transported to Justice of the Peace Court 3 by Ptlm Wheatley.

Investigative Narrative

On June 28, 2003 while on routine patrol, I met with Ptlm. Pettyjohn on Dagsworthy Avenue (bayside). At approximately 0010 hours Ptlm. Wheatley contacted Ptlm. Pettyjohn over the radio stating to him that there were two male subjects walking from Bellevue Street that had urinated in public. The two men were observed by Ptlm. Pettyjohn and myself walking down Dagsworthy Avenue. Ptlm. Pettyjohn approached the two subjects and started talking to them. At that point I was called over to the scene by Ptlm. Pettyjohn because the two males (defendant Lucci and defendant Parise) were being disorderly and irate. At this time, I started talking to the subjects in a respectful manner implying to them that they needed to calm down. At that point, defendant Lucci and defendant Parise started saying that you are "peace officers-we're fucking police officers". Ptlm. Wheatley then arrived on the scene and asked Paul A. Lucci and Gregory C. Parise for their identification. They said "no, we're done", then turned and walked off. At that point Ptlm. Wheatley and myself told the gentlemen to stop. They did not reply to our command so that is when Ptlm. Wheatley and myself grabbed the two defendants to put them in handcuffs. The two male subjects resisted and defendant Lucci slipped out of my arms, that is when Ptlm. Pettyjohn jumped in to assist me in the struggle. Ptlm. Pettyjohn grabbed defendant Lucci, that is when the defendant slipped away and took a swing at Ptlm. Pettyjohn or myself. The punch connected with me, striking me in the jaw rendering me unconscious.
